

THE GREAT COMMISSION

The call to share the gospel of Jesus Christ with others is a call that is upon every single believer. Every believer must share the message of salvation with those who are near him or her.

Every believer must be a soul winner.

It is impossible for any one man to share the gospel to every creature but it is possible to do so when every single member of the Body of Christ shares the gospel to those who do not know him in his or her surroundings.

This book will help give you insight on certain aspects of sharing the gospel so that you can be a soul winner and participate in the great commission that Jesus Christ gave to his Church.
